

FAIR DEFENSE ACT
APPOINTMENT PROCEDURES
209TH DISTRICT COURT

In furtherance of the Fair Defense Act's primary goal of providing qualified counsel to indigent defendants, and in accordance with the procedures adopted by the judges trying criminal cases in Harris County, the 209th District Court adopts a method of appointing attorneys that is a combination method of appointing attorneys that combines individual case and term appointment methods.

INDIVIDUAL CASE APPOINTMENTS (See Standards and Procedures 7.1, 8.0, 9.1). Attorneys will be assigned to handle capital cases, appeals and conflicts by the individual case appointment method as established by the procedures adopted by the judges trying criminal cases in Harris County.

TERM APPOINTMENTS (See Standards and Procedures 7.2, 8.0, 9.2). The Court will employ three qualified attorneys for one-year term appointments. The three term attorneys will be appointed to handle all the indigent cases before the court except for capital cases and appeals.

The Court will not appoint term attorneys to represent more than 5 new defendants a day. Term attorneys will carry a caseload of approximately 35 indigent defendants' cases at any given time.

Attorneys appointed to a term assignment will be paid in accordance with the established fee schedule.

If a term appointment attorney is terminated during the term, the Court will state its reasons for such action.

No term appointment attorney will be allowed to contribute to the judge's re-election campaign.

Establishment of a one-year term and the conditions of appointment specified by the Court ensures the independence of attorneys selected for term appointments.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Individual Case Appointments. Attorneys selected for individual case assignments must meet the qualifications established by the Board for Judges and appropriate to the offense with which defendant is charged. See Standards and Procedures 7.1, 9.1.

Term Appointments. Attorneys selected for term appointments must :

1. retain all pending cases at the end of the term;
