

FAIR DEFENSE ACT
APPOINTMENT PROCEDURES
232ND DISTRICT COURT

The 232nd District Court will use the individual case, limited term and term appointment methods. Attorneys will be paid in accordance with the established fee schedule.

INDIVIDUAL CASE APPOINTMENTS: The Court will use the individual case method to appoint attorneys to represent indigent defendants (1) at trial and (2) in post-conviction proceedings on an as-needed basis.

LIMITED TERM APPOINTMENTS: The Court will appoint attorneys for daily or weekly assignment on an as-needed basis.

TERM APPOINTMENTS : The Court will appoint three attorneys for one-year terms to handle all non-death, post-conviction proceedings, including direct appeals, post conviction writs, and DNA motions.

QUALIFICATIONS:

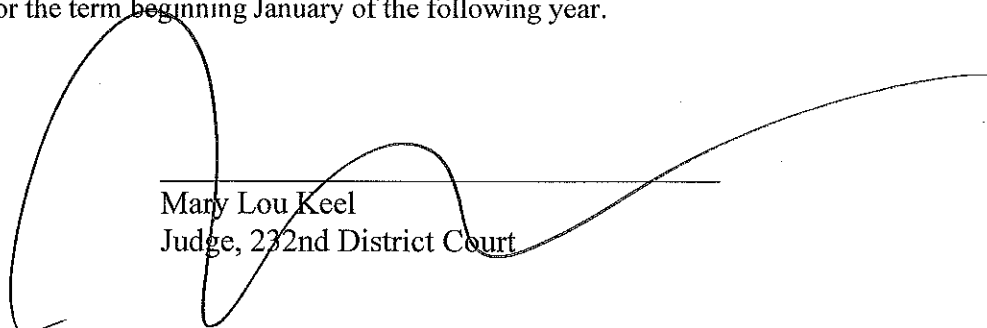

Individual Case and Limited Term Appointments: Attorneys assigned according to the individual case method must meet the qualifications established by the board of judges.

Post-Conviction Term Appointments: Up to three attorneys will be assigned to handle post-conviction cases, included direct appeals, DNA motions and writs. To qualify for the post-conviction term assignment, attorneys must:

1. be board certified in criminal law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization;
2. have practiced criminal law in Texas for at least 10 years;
3. have written at least 10 appellate briefs in criminal cases; and
4. demonstrate a commitment to completing appellate work in a timely manner and in accordance with the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure.

Applications for Post-Conviction Term Appointments: Attorneys shall submit their request for appointment to the Central Appointment Coordinator no later than 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 6, 2012, for consideration of the assignment for the term beginning January of the following year.

Date signed: 11-7-12

Mary Lou Keel
Judge, 232nd District Court