PREPARING FOR THE 2012 CERTIFICATION EXAM

General Information

The test consists of 100 multiple choice or true/false questions. It is an open book test: You may bring in hard copy, written materials but no electronic devices. There is a three-hour time limit. That means an average of 1.8 minutes per question.

Read each question carefully. Good reading comprehension will increase your chances of answering correctly. Correct answers are based on current Texas law. A grade of at least 75 is required to pass. The pass rate has historically been about 65%.

Suggested study materials: The Advanced Criminal Law Course, recent US Supreme Court criminal law opinions, recent Texas Court of Criminal Appeals opinions, and Texas statutes and rules including the penal code, code of criminal procedure, rules of evidence and rules of appellate procedure. There are no questions about capital murder.
