NO. 2004-03964

BEFORE THE ASBESTOS MDL PRE-TRIAL JUDGE

	§	IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF
	§
IN RE: ASBESTOS LITIGATION	§	HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS
	§
	§	11TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

ORDER ON MOTION FOR SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER TO SUPPLEMENT SECTION 3 OF THE SPECIAL CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER REGARDING DISMISSAL PROCEDURES UNDER SECTION 90.010

Be it remembered that on this day the Court heard the Motion for Supplemental Order to Supplement Language to 90.010 (3) of Special Case Management Order Regarding Dismissal Procedures, the arguments of counsel, and all matters properly before it. The Court having considered the same is of the opinion that good and sufficient cause exists to GRANT the motion.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Motion for Supplemental Order to Adjust Language to 90.010 (3) of Special Case Management Order Regarding Dismissal Procedures is hereby GRANTED and special case management order regarding dismissal procedures under section 90.010 (3) be amended to read:

In instances, where the court has previously sent out a notice of intent with 60 days' notice of the dismissal date, but the plaintiff was not dismissed, the court will not send out another notice providing 60 days; instead, 30 days' notice of the dismissal date will be sufficient. Furthermore, for the last month that dismissals are legislatively permitted, the court will only provide 1 week notice for those plaintiffs that have previously received a 60 day notice. All plaintiffs that have not received a previous notice of dismissal shall still receive 60 days' notice of dismissal unless the plaintiff's counsel waives such notice.

SIGNED on this 24th day of June, 2015
